SURRENDER AND LET GOD WORK

Lord, I'm begging you to give me strength to endure the refining storms in my life. You know just how feeble humans are. I need your help to endure. I want to be effective in the kingdom. Help me submit to your allowed and/or caused storms so I can be more effective. Please give me an honest look inside my soul. Please reveal what sinful roots remain so they can be eradicated before they sprout. Help me build my muscles of endurance as you continue to work at the roots that remain in my heart. Give me a willing heart to submit to your careful gardening deep down in the soil of who I really am. I need you. You know I can't do this alone. Please help me be confident in your perfect care over me. Just as you perfectly protected the disciples in the boat in the storm, I know you will protect me, too. Help me rest in your trustworthy arms as you change me in necessary and powerful ways. In Jesus' Name I pray, Amen.
